

176) hornets

See Computerized Biological Control (<http://douglasdrenkow.com/write1d.html>) for the sources of these and other copyright-free illustrations used in the booklet accompanying the software.

139) the corn earworm

CORN EARWORM

a, Moth (or adult) and eggs on silks; b, eggs; c, earworm feeding in ear of corn; d, pupa in a cell; e, color phases of the caterpillar. (All except b, about natural size; b, five and one-half times natural size.)